GrowthBuster Named Citizen of the Year!

Man Bites Dog

Stress of Quest for More
"Just too much!"

BY J.T. BOWERS

About five o'clock the gathering crowd in the station was immensely excited by the opening of the line of communication, which is almost invariably closed, between the South-Eastern and the South-Western stations, and the passage of carriage trucks bearing huge guns and carriages crammed with soldiers. These were the guns that were brought up from Woolwich and Chatham to cover Kingston. There was an exchange of pleasantries: "You'll get eaten!" "We're the beast-tamers!" and so forth. A little while after that a squad of police came into the station and began to clear the public off the platforms, and my brother went out into the street again.

The church bells were ringing for even-song, and a squad of Salvation Army lassies came singing down Waterloo Road. On the
